

North Central Region

Organization	Program	Promotion	Prevention	Early Intervention	Treatment	Description
Bayside Community Center	Giant Steps (858) 278-0771					Provide in-home parent education using Parent as Teachers model and community-based parent education for pregnant and parenting families; conduct developmental and health assessments.
Catholic Charities (858) 547-3630 x107	Family Support Services					Provide in-home parenting education and parenting skills development to promote child protection and safety. Provide assessment, referral and support services.
Children's Hospital	Autism Intervention Center					Provide a variety of services for families of children who have autism including parent education, play and language support services, social skills groups, and an Inclusive preschool program.
Children's Hospital	Family Violence Program (619) 282-3970					Provides crisis intervention, individual, group, and family therapy for families with familial violence.
Community Research Foundation (858) 695-2211	Douglas Young Youth and Family Services					Crisis and community support, individual, group, and family therapy, play and art therapy, medication management, case management, psychological testing, school-based services, including IEP participation.
Episcopal Community Services (619) 260-8100	Kids First / Learning First					Expand the continuum of care at Julian's Sanctuary, a transitional housing program for victims of domestic violence, to provide clinical developmental assessment and treatment for children ages 2-5.
Healthy Start (858) 496-0044	Military Family Cluster					Information, referrals, advocacy in school district, supportive home visitation, prenatal support, and early childhood education through play groups. Provide family facilitators and case management for 100-200 families. Work specifically with children from three military housing developments.

Home Start, Inc. (619) 692-0727	Project PRAISE					Provide children with home and center-based therapies to address developmental delays.
Jewish Family Services (877) 537-1818						Agency provides a wide variety of services focused on preserving the family life and supporting children, adults and families. Services include individual, group and family counseling, crisis intervention, family violence, parent education, psychological testing, long-term therapy and play therapy.
Neighborhood House Association	Headstart (3-5) Early Headstart (0-2)					Provide play therapy, family therapy, crisis intervention, and family support. Some of the therapy services are referred out. Serves all of SD county, ages 0-5.
Palomar Pomerado Health	Welcome Home Baby Program					Provides a home visit program for first-time mothers and their babies for assessment and education.
SAY San Diego, Inc.	Born to Learn / Start Smart					Provide parent information and education through in-home and center-based activities through Start Smart, community mobilization and conduct developmental assessments to low-income families and children in multicultural communities.
SAY San Diego, Inc. Healthy Start Military Family Cluster	Our Kids Count					Parent outreach and education to families and children through home visitation and community and center-based activities. A multi-disciplinary team of staff, Public Health Nurse, CPS worker, Naval Medical Center. Referrals for developmental assessments and treatment.

North Inland Region

Organization	Program	Promotion	Prevention	Early Intervention	Treatment	Description
ARC San Diego	Parent and Infant Program (619) 427-7524 x343					Assessment and consultation services, speech and language therapy; home-based and center-based services, parent-and-child participation groups.
Catholic Charities (760) 432-3821	Counseling Services					Provides individual, child and family therapy. Offer psychotherapy, psycho-diagnostic testing, family therapy, group counseling, psychiatric evaluation, and referral to community resources.
Children's Hospital	Children's Care Connection (C3) (760) 591-0179					Provides developmental assessment for children 18-36 months, developmental treatment for children 18 months –5 and parent education for parent of children 0-5.
Escondido Community Child Development Center	Early care and educational services					Infant, toddlers, and preschool classes. In class, on site, individual play therapy, peer-peer, and teacher-child early intervention. Parent education classes.
Fallbrook Union School District	Parents as Teachers					Provide parents with information on child development prenatal to age 5; and involves them in parent-child activities that encourage language, intellectual, motor and social emotional growth.
Home Start, Inc. (619) 692-0727	Project PRAISE					Provide children with home and center-based therapies to address developmental delays.
Jewish Family Services (877) 537-1818						Agency provides a wide variety of services focused on preserving the family life and supporting children, adults and families. Services include individual, group and family counseling, crisis intervention, family violence, parent education, psychological testing, long-term therapy and play therapy.

Metropolitan Area Advisory Committee	First Start (760) 471-4090					Provide comprehensive child development program for pre-school aged children (3-5), including assessments and referrals.
North County Health Service	Child Parenting Resource Center					Provide a parent-child Resource Center at the North County Health Services San Marcos Health Center for pediatric patients, 0-5.
North County Lifeline, Inc. (760) 726-4900	Counseling Services					General counseling and support services for children, youth, individuals and families to enhance the quality of individual, family and community life. Services are available throughout North County in English and Spanish.
North County Serenity House	Health Access for Children					On-site developmental assessments and treatment services to children of very low income women in recovery who are otherwise unable to access these services.
Palomar Family Counseling (760) 741-2660	Site-based outreach (developmental) CHIP DOVE					Provide site-based and outreach based developmental assessment and treatment, individual and relationship based therapy for children and families, play therapy and playgroups. CHIP – work with children with severe behavioral problems. DOVE – Working with childhood victims of trauma and abuse.
Palomar Pomerado Health	Welcome Home Baby Program					Provides a home visit program for first-time mothers and their babies for assessment and education.
Poway Unified School District	The Ready to Learn Program					Provide parent education workshops that equip parents with specific skills and strategies to use with children, beginning at birth to age 5 in order to ensure readiness for success in kindergarten. The project also offers a parent-monitored developmental assessment tool and referral services.
St. Clare's Home, Inc	Little Angels Learning Center					Provides developmental assessment and treatment services on-site at childcare centers and family daycare home for children age 18 months to five years old.

North Coastal Region

Organization	Program	Promotion	Prevention	Early Intervention	Treatment	Description
ARC San Diego	Parent and Infant Program (619) 427-7524 x343					Assessment and consultation services, speech and language therapy; home-based and center-based services, parent-and-child participation groups.
Casa de Amparo	Therapeutic Daycare and Preschool					Provide therapeutic daycare for children 18 months –3, and therapeutic preschool program for children 3-5.
Catholic Charities (760) 422-8878	Counseling Services					Provides individual child and family therapy. Offer psychotherapy, psycho-diagnostic testing, family therapy, group counseling, psychiatric evaluation, and referral to community resources.
Children's Hospital	Children's Care Connection (C3) (760) 591-0179					Provides developmental assessment for children 18-36 months, developmental treatment for children 18 months –5 and parent education for parent of children 0-5.
Home Start, Inc. (619) 692-0727	Project PRAISE					Provide children with home and center-based therapies to address developmental delays.
Jewish Family Services (877) 537-1818						Agency provides a wide variety of services focused on preserving the family life and supporting children, adults and families. Services include individual, group and family counseling, crisis intervention, family violence, parent education, psychological testing, long-term therapy and play therapy.
North County Lifeline, Inc. (760) 726-4900	Counseling Services					General counseling and support services for children, youth, individuals and families to enhance the quality of individual, family and community life. Services are available throughout North County in English and Spanish.

Palomar Family Counseling (760) 741-2660	Site-based outreach (developmental) CHIP DOVE					Provide site-based and outreach based developmental assessment and treatment, individual and relationship based therapy for children and families, play therapy and playgroups. CHIP – work with children with severe behavioral problems. DOVE – Working with childhood victims of trauma and abuse.
Palomar Pomerado Health	Welcome Home Baby Program					Provides a home visit program for first-time mothers and their babies for assessment and education.
St. Clare's Home, Inc	Little Angels Learning Center					Provides developmental assessment and treatment services on-site at childcare centers and family daycare home for children age 18 months to five years old.
Vista Community Clinic	Infancia Feliz					An innovative and culturally competent program designed to address the needs of low-income Hispanic children zero to 18 months of age. The program utilizes home visitation, health education, and facilitated case management to increase access to care, improve infant health, and foster the parent-child relationship.

East Region

Organization	Program	Promotion	Prevention	Early Intervention	Treatment	Description
ARC San Diego	Parent and Infant Program (619) 427-7524 x343					Assessment and consultation services, speech and language therapy; home-based and center-based services, parent-and-child participation groups.
Beginnings Infant Development Program	(619) 238-0105					Developmental screening and assessment; in-home visits, including a home education program with a focus on helping children reach their optimum development.
California Early Start Program						Serving developmentally delayed infants and toddlers from birth to age three. Assessments, developmental screening and evaluation, speech and hearing therapy.
Catholic Charities (619) 287-9454 x185	Healthy New Americans – East region					Provide home-based parent education using the Parent as Teachers model and developmental assessments and referrals as needed for children ages 0-5.
Children’s Hospital (858) 576-4011	Chadwick Center					Provide trauma-focused counseling, including psychological testing and child and family advocacy for victims of abuse, neglect, or trauma ages 0-18.
Community Health Group Foundation (619) 498-6412	Parent Education Home Visits					Provide parent educators who will visit Community Health Group Medical babies under age one upon their enrollment in the plan, and provide training on child development, home and car safety, and health.
Community Research Foundation	Crossroads Family Center (619) 441-1907					Provide short-term counseling and crisis intervention services to adults, adolescents and children. Offer family counseling services. Services are provided in homes, schools, medical clinics, community centers, or other community-based locations as well as in the clinic in El Cajon.

Community Research Foundation	Professional Community Services Counseling Center (619) 449-8703					Provides comprehensive counseling services for individuals, couples, children and families. Also offer court-ordered domestic violence classes and counseling. Anger management courses available. Serve children ages 4 and up.
Community Research Foundation (619) 441-1907	Rural Family Counseling Services					Crisis and community support, individual, group and family therapy, medication management with therapy. Ages 2-18.
East County Mental Health Clinic						Frontline crisis services, individual, group and family therapy outpatient treatment, psychiatric services.
Early Start Program	La Mesa/Spring Valley					Speech and hearing therapy, developmental screening and/or evaluation.
Family Health Centers	Project Steps to SEED (Social, Emotional & Educational Developmental)					Provide further development of three (3) Family Resource Centers by improving assessment/treatment resources, and parent education opportunities, and serve families with children 0-5.
Family Health Centers of San Diego	Infant/Toddler Early Intervention Program (619) 515-2300 x2512					Program is designed to optimize early development in infants and toddlers. Children birth to age 3 are screened to identify any developmental delays. Specialists offer information, support, parent education, age-appropriate toys, pre-language stimulation and in-home developmental activities. A center-based toddler enrichment program is also available for children ages 2-3 years.
Family Health Centers of San Diego	Spring Valley Family Resource Center (619) 515-2463					Provides family-focused case management, developmental screening for ages 0-5, including vision and dental screening, parenting classes, parent/child activity groups for infants and toddlers, and referrals to community services.
Multi-cultural Child Development and School Readiness Center	Immigrant Families Parent Education Program					Educate immigrant parents on appropriate ways to discipline, communicate, and care for their children ages 0-5.
New Alternatives	Home Based Services					Provide in-home family work, parent/child observation and family support. Focus on developmental needs of children, discipline, health, nutrition, parenting needs, etc.
San Diego Birthing Project	Parent Education, In-home Visitor Program					Provide in-home health education and parenting skills to 80 high-risk mothers to improve the health status of the child and the entire family.
San Diego Center for Children	Therapeutic Services, Inc. (858) 277-9550 x288 Building Bridges					Provide preschool readiness program bringing health and behavioral health assessment and treatment to ten classes in La Mesa and Spring Valley School District.

Santee School District (619) 956-5250	Children and Families Ready for School				Provide academic and behavioral parent education classes for parents of zero to five year olds as a target population. In addition, these services will be extended to the growing population of English language learners (ELL).
Sevick School (619) 588-3144	Early Start Program				Assessment and developmental screening for children from birth to age three, parent education, and public school-based educational services.

Central Region

Organization	Program	Promotion	Prevention	Early Intervention	Treatment	Description
Alcott Infant and Toddler Development Program	Infant/Toddler Program					Program offers assessment, developmental screening and evaluation, family, group and individual counseling, nursing and transportation; home visits for families of children 0-3, whose development is delayed or at risk for delay.
Alpha of San Diego (619) 285-9999	Youth and Family Resource Center					Provides individual, family and group counseling and anger management courses.
ARC San Diego	Parent and Infant Program (619) 427-7524 x343					Assessment and consultation services, speech and language therapy; home-based and center-based services, parent-and-child participation groups.
Beginnings Infant Development Program	(619) 238-0105					Developmental screening and assessment; in-home visits, including a home education program with a focus on helping children reach their optimum development.
Children's Hospital (858) 576-4011	Chadwick Center					Provide trauma-focused counseling, including psychological testing and child and family advocacy for victims of abuse, neglect, or trauma ages 0-18.
Catholic Charities (619) 231-2828	Counseling Services					Provides individual child and family therapy. Offer psychotherapy, psycho-diagnostic testing, family therapy, group counseling, psychiatric evaluation, and referral to community resources.
Community Health Group Foundation (619) 498-6412	Parent Education Home Visits					Provide parent educators who will visit Community Health Group Medical babies under age one upon their enrollment in the plan, and provide training on child development, home and car safety, and health.
Early Start Program	La Mesa/Spring Valley					Speech and hearing therapy, developmental screening and/or evaluation.

Family Health Centers of San Diego	Logan Heights Family Resource Center (619) 515-2406					Provides family-focused case management, developmental screening for ages 0-5, including vision and dental screening, parenting classes, parent/child activity groups for infants and toddlers, and referrals to community services.
Family Health Centers of San Diego	North Park Family Resource Center (619) 515-2556					Provides family-focused case management, developmental screening for ages 0-5, including vision and dental screening, parenting classes, parent/child activity groups for infants and toddlers, and referrals to community services.
Family Health Centers (619) 515-2399	Project Steps to SEED (Social, Emotional & Educational Developmental) (619) 556-7404					Provide further development of three (3) Family Resource Centers by improving assessment/treatment resources, and parent education opportunities, and serve families with children 0-5.
Fleet and Family Support Center						Crisis intervention; individual, group, and family counseling and parent education for military personnel and their families.
Homestart (619) 692-0727						Play therapy, crisis intervention, case management, parenting, in-home therapy, PCIT and outreach. Also have a sliding scale agency for all ages. Children 0-17 with a history of trauma.
Harmonium Inc.	Outpatient Counseling Services					Provide individual play therapy and family therapy, assessments for ADD and ADHD, and psychological testing.
Jewish Family Services (877) 537-1818						Agency provides a wide variety of services focused on preserving the family life and supporting children, adults and families. Services include individual, group and family counseling, crisis intervention, family violence, parent education, psychological testing, long-term therapy and play therapy.
Multi-cultural Child Development and School Readiness	Immigrant Families Parent Education Program					Educate immigrant parents on appropriate ways to discipline, communicate, and care for their children ages 0-5.
New Alternatives	Home Based Services					Provide in-home family work, parent/child observation and family support. Focus on developmental needs of children, discipline, health, nutrition, parenting needs, etc.
Rancho Jireh Foster Homes						Recruit, screen, train and certify foster families for children with difficult emotional and behavioral problems. Provide in-home counseling, respite, childcare, and monitoring. Ages 0-17.
San Diego Birthing Project	Parent Education, In-home Visitor Program					Provide in-home health education and parenting skills to 80 high-risk mothers to improve the health status of the child and the entire family.
San Diego City Schools	Infant Development Program (858) 272-9641					Assessment, developmental evaluation, support for special needs and developmentally delayed children, Early Intervention Program, parent education.

SAY San Diego	San Diego Preservation and support program (619) 283-9624					Provides primary home-based services with three separate components: Family preservation, family support, and post-adoptive services. Services include parent education, skills enhancement, case management, crisis intervention, and referrals.
St Vincent de Paul Village	Project S.A.F.E C.H.I.L.D.					Provide services for homeless children and their parents/caregivers as well as prenatal and post-partum women. Offer pre-natal and parent education, developmental assessments for children 18 – 36 months including a mobile service; developmental treatment for children ages zero to five years. ; Physical health assessment treatment for pregnant and post-partum women, and children 0-5.
UCSD	Off To A Good Start					Parent Education workshops designed in children's language acquisition and literacy skills, social, emotional, physical development of children 0-5.
YMCA (858) 272-9641	Alcott Infant and Toddler Developmental Program					Assessment, developmental screening and evaluation, family, group and individual counseling, nursing and transportation; home visits for families of children ages 0-3 whose development is delayed or at risk for delay.

South Region

Organization	Program	Promotion	Prevention	Early Intervention	Treatment	Description
Alpha of San Diego (619) 285-9999	Youth and Family Resource Center					Provides individual, family and group counseling and anger management courses. In Southeast region.
ARC San Diego	Parent and Infant Program (619) 427-7524 x343					Assessment and consultation services, speech and language therapy; home-based and center-based services, parent-and-child participation groups.
Beginnings Infant Development Program	(619) 238-0105					Developmental screening and assessment; in-home visits, including a home education program with a focus on helping children reach their optimum development.
Center for Healthier Communities (858) 495-7748	Parents as Teachers (PAT)					Home visiting program aimed to increase parents' understanding of child's development and their ability to stimulate child's physical, mental, and emotional development. Provides health education materials, teaching activities, and a series of group workshops.
Children's Hospital (858) 576-4011	Chadwick Center					Provide trauma-focused counseling, PCIT, psychological testing and child and family advocacy for victims of abuse, neglect, or trauma ages 0-18.
Community Research Foundation	Nueva Vista Family Services (619) 585-7686					Outpatient psychiatric services, medication management, individual, family and group therapy. Medi-cal and Short-Doyle and EPSDT services for National School Services, Chula Vista School District and Sweetwater High School District. Children ages 5 and up.
Community Health Group Foundation (619) 498-6412	Parent Education Home Visits					Provide parent educators who will visit Community Health Group Medical babies under age one upon their enrollment in the plan, and provide training on child development, home and car safety, and health.
Episcopal Community Services (619) 422-1642	Head Start					Provides a comprehensive child development program including educational activities, health and social services, and opportunities for parental involvement. Ages 3-5 years.

Family Health Centers of San Diego	Infant/Toddler Early Intervention Program (619) 515-2300 x2512				Program is designed to optimize early development in infants and toddlers. Children birth to age 3 are screened to identify any developmental delays. Specialists offer information, support, parent education, age-appropriate toys, pre-language stimulation and in-home developmental activities. A center-based toddler enrichment program is also available for children ages 2-3 years.
San Diego Birthing Project	Parent Education, In-home Visitor Program				Provide in-home health education and parenting skills to 80 high-risk mothers to improve the health status of the child and the entire family.
San Ysidro Health Center	Healthy Steps (619) 427-9505				Mobile services unit provides preventative health services and education, including medical, dental and behavioral screening for families with children under age 5.
South Bay Union School District	Family Health Early Life Promotion (HELP)				Provides parent education and involvement with the initial early healthy development of children. The program will use a variety of conduits to channel and direct comprehensive child health development messages to parents and caregivers within the service areas of the Family HELP program.

Special and Countywide Services

Organization	Program	Promotion	Prevention	Early Intervention	Treatment	Description
American Red Cross (619) 542-7400	San Diego and Imperial Counties Chapter					Provides 24-hour worldwide communication services, health and welfare inquiries, emergency financial assistance to active military, counseling, reunification, and referral services.
Aurora Behavioral Healthcare (858) 675-4228						Provide assessment and crisis intervention, inpatient and outpatient children and adolescent behavioral health services (ages 4 and up).
Center for Reproductive Psychology	(858) 635-1325 x422					Relationship-based counseling for couples, including post-partum mood disorder counseling. Play therapy for children of all ages, direct individual and family counseling, parent/child interaction evaluation, psychotherapy and referrals.
Child Abuse Prevention Foundation	Developmental Screening and Enhancement Project (858) 966-7703 x3155					Provide developmental screening for children who “by pass” Polinsky Children’s Center, and are placed in foster or relative care home and, if appropriate, refer for further evaluation and services.
Children’s Hospital (858) 576-5817	Developmental Evaluation Clinic					Provide developmental and psychological evaluations and evaluations of parent-child interactions, including child diagnostic evaluation and linkage to appropriate services.
Children’s Hospital (858) 576-1700	Family Support Services					In-home family support, home visitation, parent education, child development classes, Play & Grow groups, teen parenting services, parent-infant assessments, and community resource utilization. These services are combined with trauma counseling services for parents and children.

Children's Hospital (858) 966-5803 x5727	The Center for Child Protection					The mission is to protect children, strengthen families and promote public policy, research, advocacy and prevention. Provides assessment, crisis intervention, individual, group and family therapy, family violence and child protective services, parent and childcare staff education.
County of San Diego Health and Human Services Agency	Outpatient Clinics					Provides outpatient mental health services for severely emotionally disturbed children. Provides individual, family and group psychotherapy and medication evaluation and monitoring. Parenting groups are also available.
Counseling and Behavioral Specialist	(619) 697-0470					Assessment and crisis intervention, family and marital counseling, domestic violence counseling, child protective services, counseling for victims of crime, sexual assault, or violence.
Episcopal Community Services (619) 946-1001	Para las Familias EPSDT					Assessment, individual, filial and family therapy. Services provided at clinic, pre-school sites, and in-home for children with emotional or behavioral difficulties, ages 0-5.
Family Services Association	(858) 279-0400					Counseling for individuals, families and couples; children and teenage behavioral health services, domestic violence, anger management and parenting classes.
Heartbeat Family Partnership (888) 843-5800	Information and referral line					Offers information and referral to resources and services for children and their families. Provides a "warm line" that specializes in assisting callers with information and access to services and support for children and families facing emotional, behavioral, and/or mental health changes.
HHSA/ New Alternatives (619) 421-6900	Emergency Screening Unit					Provide 24-hour emergency psychiatric screening and evaluation. Provide brief crisis intervention, medication evaluation and monitoring and referrals to appropriate treatment services.
Hope Infant Family Support Program	(760) 471-7353					Provide assessment and developmental intervention per IFSP, developmental evaluation, speech and hearing therapy, parent education and consultation services.
Jewish Family Services of San Diego	Parent Education Program					Provide parent education targeting the community at large including underserved populations (teen parents, immigrants, homeless, ESL, etc.) using Systematic Training for Effective Parenting curriculum for parents of children ages 0-5.
Kaiser (619) 528-6297	Pediatric Special Care and Developmental Program					Assessment for developmental delays, special care needs services for HMO members.
Lawrence Family Jewish Community Center	Nierman Pre-school					Provide developmental assessments for children 18 months to 5 years; and provide community-based parent education seminars on age appropriate early childhood development to families.

Mental Health Association in San Diego County	Community Education (619) 543-0412					Provide information regarding mental health issues.
Metropolitan Area Advisory Committee (619) 426-3595	Headstart (3-5) Early Headstart (0-2)					Provide play therapy, family therapy, crisis intervention, and family support. Some of the therapy services are referred out. Serves all of SD county, ages 0-5.
Neighborhood House Association (619) 263-7761	Early Headstart Program					Parent counseling, play therapy, behavioral modification and referrals.
United Way of San Diego	Info Line					Information and referrals for shelter, food, drug and alcohol abuse, depression, stress, eviction, food stamps, battered spouse, veterans benefits, disabled services, parent-child conflict, medical care and other health and human service needs.
United Way of San Diego	Parenting Link					Referral service for parents. Comprehensive database of parenting classes and in-home parenting support programs throughout San Diego County.
Regional Perinatal System of San Diego and Imperial Counties (Contractors)	Kit for New Parents: San Diego Welcome Baby Program					Develop partnerships with local agencies to distribute the Kit for New Parents to new mothers in San Diego County. Packaged in a colorful box, the Kit includes six parenting videos, parenting education brochures and resource guide.
San Diego and Imperial County Regional Center (858) 576-2996	Early Start					Provide coordination services for persons with developmental disabilities and their families through case management, counseling, advocacy, program evaluation, community education and resource development, public education and training. Children from birth to three do not need to have a permanent disability to qualify, but must have a risk of delay.
SDSU Foundation: Exceptional Families Resource Center	Exceptional Families					Provide parent-to-parent support, resources, and referral information and education opportunities to families of children ages 0-5 with disabilities.
SDSU Foundation: KPBS Project Q Kids	Raising Quality Kids					In partnership, KPBS and KGTV have developed a project focusing on strengthening a parent's ability to help their children become ready to learn, using interstitials, newscasts, radio programs, printed materials and online content.
SDSU Foundation: Por la Vida	Familias Saludables					Enrolls Latino families and children in a 12 session parenting curriculum. The project includes child-centered school readiness, referrals and follow-up.

Union of Pan Asian Communities (619) 232-6354	Families Living In Good Health Together (FLIGHT)					Provide bi-lingual parenting and health education workshops, case management services, referrals, and follow up, including interpretation, translation, and transportation and also provide community organizational and family-based activities to develop early literacy skills for: Cambodian, Chinese, Hmong, Lao, Filipino, Samoan, and Vietnamese parents of children ages 0-5.
YMCA of San Diego County	Childcare Resource Service (CRS)					Provides developmental, health, behavioral health assessment, case management resource and referrals and parent education to families with children 0-5.
YWCA of San Diego County	Counseling Services (858) 270-4504					Provides individual, couple, family and group counseling, including specialized services for families experiencing domestic violence. Ages 4 and up.